Middle School Summit Effective Middle Schools lead to Student Success!

Keynote Speakers: Pat Benson, Director of Michigan Schools in the Middle, Central Michigan University and Diane McMillan, Associate Director, MASSP

This workshop will address:

- The priority steps that middle school faculty and administrators should be taking NOW to ensure student success in both middle school and high school.
- How high school reform has a lot to do with middle schools.
- Proven middle school practices that impact student learning and actions.

The workshop includes:

- Keynote speakers who will share what works in middle schools for both students and staff.
- A knowledgeable panel of Michigan Educators who will address the challenges in middle school education.
- 16 breakout sessions of PROVEN middle school practices that lead to student and staff success.
- Quality reference resources.

Bring a team! This is a unique opportunity to meet with educators who are facing the same challenges as you and seeking answers to those challenges. Superintendents, curriculum directors, principals, teachers, school board members, counselors, and other interested educators are invited.

Hours: This workshop will run from 8am until 3:15pm.

Approved for 0.5 SB-CEU's
